The "Academiker Verein" (apparently a cover name for the NKVD) in Vienna was represented by Attila DOSZA, who was kidnapped and repatriated to Hungary by Aurel CZIBERT. Ladislav FORTNER, Collective Hungarian resident, replaced DOSZA.

MAV 1113 18 May 1949

DOSZA's group is gradually becoming active again after the kidnapping of its leader. Otto DEUTSCH, apparently a member of the group, recently crossed the frontier with papers intended for the SPOs. He was picked up by Austrian order guards and then to SPOs headquarters in Vienna I, where a Mr. HERZOG vouched for him. Subject gave HERZOG all his documents, including some which were not originally intended for the SPOs, but these were confiscated by Andrej SZYMONT, a CIC agent, who learned of them through one "Hugo."
